Investment Bank Partnerships

Instead of traditional banks, AI-4X collaborates with investment banks to process payments. This means direct access to investment-bank pricing, which often results in significant savings

The gap has been closed between investment banks and the end-user. Ensuring maximum savings for our clients.

Cost Savings

By offering investment-bank direct prices, substantial savings for our clients' FX transactions can be achieved. On average our clients experience savings of 0.25% - 0.4% throughout the year, as confirmed by independent research.

Faster Transaction Speeds

Through closing the gap, our clients able to achieve faster transaction speeds, providing industrial speed credits to customers and suppliers globally.
